

Jill Shaw
CAPE ELIZABETH
LD 2238

I am asking the committee to support this proposed legislation. Waiting period laws are associated with reduced suicide rates which creates a buffer between someone having a suicidal crisis and access to a gun. Waiting periods are a critical tool to allow someone experiencing a crisis a second chance at life. Waiting periods can be the difference between life and death for anyone thinking about suicide.