

Vincent Marzilli II
West Enfield
LD 227

I do not support the legislation that would make Maine a sanctuary state for transgender people. This proposal is not necessary. Transgender people are welcome in the State of Maine but should not receive special status or protection. This would be discriminatory and additionally would draw finances from funds that could be used elsewhere.