

Jaron McFarland
South Paris
LD 227

My name is Jaron McFarland, I live in South Paris, Maine. I am a father of seven, husband of one lovely wife, a pastor, and a chaplain with the Maine State Police. I am honored to serve in every one of these areas and do so to my fullest capacity as the Lord allows. I have been in many broken homes where people are looking for answers, comfort, and hope. This bill will make hard situations much harder as it does not provide real answers to their questions. It does not give hope, and it will not bring comfort but will bring pain. I ask you to oppose LD 227 and join me in the work to bring true comfort to hurting people through the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ.
