

David Brinkman
Windham
LD 2283

The Red Flag law ought not to pass. Its intention and publicity are flawed expressions of unnecessary gun control reaction to unsupported reasoning from the media reports associated with the Lewiston tragedy. Exploitation of the crisis misleads the argument for legislative intervention and I oppose the adoption. Please add my testimony to the record against this bill.