

Andrew DeMaris
Standish
LD 2283

Restricting a citizen's rights before that citizen has committed a crime is immoral and an abuse of power. This proposed law is rife with potential for abuse, including swatting, vengeful accusations, and politically targeted personal attacks. This is an unhelpful, immoral, unconstitutional overreach. I ask you to oppose LD2283.