

Rosemary Ray
Hampden
LD 2283

This bill ought NOT pass. It is contrary to the Second Amendment of the Constitution. Generally, the yellow flag laws are sufficient, when followed. I see this as a response to Robert Card's mass shooting, which was a tragedy. However, yellow flag laws were not followed by law enforcement. Any law that is not enforced is not effective.

This is just a step closer to Americans losing their right to own guns to defend themselves.