

Caden Wooldridge
Corrina maine
LD 133

This is something to not take away from any person it's more of a tradition from family fun keeps some kids and adults from doing other things other than something that is loved by many this is a sport and also some people's way of living and something that is loved doing hunting with dogs has given me more responsibility and out of trouble when done the right way .