

Warren Evans
Windham
LD 133

I urge the members of committee to vote against this proposed legislation. I believe the individual communities in Maine have a great variety of needs and desires when it comes to animals on property, and that as those individual communities best understand their needs the rules regarding animals should be left to the communities.