

Alex Wytas
Woolwich
LD 15

Mainers live with the 3rd highest tax burden in the nation. When using travel trailers at Maine campgrounds, campers are already hit with a “lodging tax” on lodging they’re providing themselves. The excise tax on camper registrations is just another way Maine politicians treat the citizens like tax cattle on their revenue farm.