

Jeff Titon
Little Deer Isle
LD 32

As a resident of Little Deer Isle, Maine, I am entering testimony against this Act. Net Energy Billing is critically important for the State and its citizens to meet our renewable energy goals. Eliminating it would be an economic problem for the people who are already benefiting from Net Energy Billing, and it would discourage other citizens from installing solar energy arrays "on the grid."