

Jamieson Simpson
Orono
LD 222

I urge the committee to support this bill. Firefighting and fire-suppressing foam contain PFAS, which are forever lasting and poison the landscape after use. Great alternatives like GreenFire Firefighting Foam and Hi-Ex Foam offer no downsides besides the economic opportunity cost of switching. This bill would make up for that difference and be a great precedent for future public service equipment.