

Jennifer Moody
Mattawakeg
LD 716

Coyotes scare me. I have had bad experiences on the woods when they followed me out while I was beaver trapping. There are other times where they tried to lure my dogs toward them. My husband hunts them throughout the seasons which helps keep the population down without totally wiping them out. Seems like there is a good management program in place why change it!