

Holly Mitchell
Portland
LD 435

Historic Tax credits provide an important means to utilize properties already standing from an economic perspective and to maintain the character of the building landscape in Maine. Many of these buildings are VERY well built and can last centuries more with proper care