

Leah Hurley
Cumberland
LD 537

I believe in the legal protections against doxing (the malicious disclosure of personal identifying information) specifically when the victim is a minor. To knowingly share personal details without consent, with the intent to cause harm such as stalking, physical harm, property damage, or creating reasonable fear for personal safety, is just horrific. Please vote "ought to pass" for LD537".