

Mila Plavsic
Falmouth
LD 14

Given that all current State Parks in Maine are located on unceded Wabanaki land, it is only right that all members of tribal communities be allowed to enter State Parks without paying an entrance fee. This would be a small gesture of recognition and respect for the millennia of careful stewardship which the Wabanaki have provided for the Dawnland. Thank you.