

Anthony Bailey
Augusta
LD 132

Can they study the constitution of parental rights to allow parents to automatically get parental rights over adult children that can't take care of themselves that are over 18 years old please its best for special needs autistic or other developmental disabled adults to be under their parents care and parents should have legal rights part of constitution of Maine over special needs adults