

Anthony Bailey
Augusta
LD 492

Can you make amendments to the bill for parents to automatic have parental rights over special needs adult children that are over 18 that have autism and intellectual disability and there are other states that have parents have parental rights over special needs adult with developmental disability and my dad wants amendments the bill so my dad could have parental rights over me when I'm 26 years old with autism and can't take care of myself and I need my dad to have legal rights over me my dad has the right to raise me until I can gain my legal independent and also parental rights for other family members and step parents for special needs adults please I beg you to make amendments to it this will help people