

George Schelling
Orland
LD 303

I urge you to reject this bill. Paramilitary training in Maine, as demonstrated by our recent experience, provides a nexus for greater factionalism at a time when people are already divided. I support free speech and the right of persons to air their opinions, but this is not speech. For Maine to be ground zero for individuals preparing for and advocating violence in our political arena is not "the way life should be."