

Eluzabeth Mellady
Chesterville
LD 895

I would love for this bill to pass. My family and I have been attending Maine Local Living School for the passed two years in order to enrich our homeschool curriculum. The skills they have recieved are priceless. The knowledge of how to recieve mother earth's gifts in a respectful way is a thing we could all benefit from. Especially in our modern world where kur connection with nature is fraying. Land based skills have given my kids more confidence, curiosity and overall awe.