

Ian Liphart
Portland
LD 537

Unfortunately due to the actions of adults and elected state representatives, Maine needs a specific set of laws laws that hold adults accountable if they use personally identifying information about children with the intent to harm or cause fear. It should not be lawful to harm children for political gain. I support this bill.