

Jennifer Munro
Westbrook
LD 875

I fully support increasing funding to sustain services in Maine communities that address the singular cause of homicide and violence against women in our state. I fear for what will happen to women, especially in rural Maine, if funding is cut or eliminated. This is important to everyone, not just women, because with a safer community everyone has the opportunity to live happy and successful lives.