

ELissa Littlefield ELissa Littlefield
Orland
LD 496

I truly believe this bill should pass. I have watched this Graham Latcher case from the beginning and it saddens me to think we did not already have common sense rules in place to protect vulnerable adults. I also believe if this case had been treated with a silver alert that the chances of getting help to him or anyone in crisis would have improved the chances greatly of them being found. Please pass this bill.