

Robert Costa
Bangor
LD 787

I am an alumnus of MSSM class of 2011, and I can say both that this school was instrumental to my success in college and career as well as that it was lacking in having the funding and resources that magnet schools in other states seemed to benefit from, in terms of both the facilities and the staff that could have supported my time there better.