

Christopher Caracciolo
Rumford
LD 1073

I am a family medicine doctor. Very important that any mining activities first be discussed and approved by the potentially affected communities. Mining is known to commonly cause water degradation and stands to potentially impact the health of our populations, particularly children who are still growing.