

Betsey Foster, MPH
Greenwood
LD 1073

I worked in environmental health for a number of years and have seen the harm to public health that mining can do.

Please vote to pass LD1073 to protect public health from mining operations. It is up to the public health scientists to decide what is harmful (or not) to the public. It is not up to the mining industry. The mining industry has a dreadful history of pollution and disregard for human and environmental health.