

Brian Drinkard
York
LD 1049

Vote YES on LD 1049. Only law abiding citizens follow the duty to inform. Anyone up to no good will not inform an officer. The requirement was always illogical. The officer is not required to announce that they are armed, why should other citizens face that requirement? All it does is change the tone of the interaction. End this absurd requirement.