

Christine Szalay
Damariscotta
LD 927

I am opposed to this bill. This is an outright violation of the separation of church and state. The use of a volunteer or paid staff to provide a religious program or counseling should not be considered at all. This would violate student rights concerning their free exercise of religion by subjecting them to religious material not of their own faith.