

Diane Bourdreau
Auburn
LD 953

Maine should align with Federal law regarding the definition of a machine gun. Shotgun shells are manufactured specifically for the purpose of hunting waterfowl. People have used shotgun shells for generations, "common use items," while exercising their Constitutional rights. Shot gun shells are not machine guns.