

Christopher Bates
Brooksville
LD 1109

I feel this bill is unwarranted , laws on the books already if used are more than adequate to prevent these events as proven by the Lewiston shooting investigation. Furthermore magazine bans have and are presently being challenged and found unconstitutional in several cases that have and are being heard at present . What sense is there to pass a bill that will instantly be challenged and overturned w, wasting more Maine taxpayer funds , when the state is clearly In trouble financially as we debate this bill .
Respectively