

Ralph Hudson
Auburn
LD 1049

LD 1049:

I agree that individuals should not have to notify law enforcement that they are carrying a firearm. Law enforcement has no legal obligation to protect citizens so it is none of their business how a citizen chooses to protect themselves. And it does nothing for officer safety because a bad guy who has intentions of harming a law enforcement officer doesn't need a firearm to do so.