

Ralph Hudson
Auburn
LD 1126

LD 1126:

I disagree that people should have to serialize firearms or firearm components that they make themselves. Serialization is for inventory purposes for a manufacturer of products. What a citizen has in their own inventory is none of the government's business. This is just a way of trying to create an illegal registration.