

Bill Hammond
Boothbay
LD 69

It is imperative that Maine stay the course and lead the nation in banning single-use plastic bags. The global environment is choking on plastics and the micro-particles produced as the plastic degrades.

This ban is a small but very important step to remediate one of the many sources of pollution that endangers our health and the biosphere.