My name is Courtney Brown and I just currently got released from DOC on to probation at the beginning of March. I at this time am paying not only fines and restitution but also I am asked to pay a $10.00 fee every month to be on probation. I have to do this for the next 3 years after just serving 3 years in prison. I'm currently enrolled as a full time student in college for Substance abuse & Recovery/Human Services I'm also currently unemployed. Not only did I serve 3 years and lost my license, car, house. I'm living with family who are helping me with rides and a place to live for the time being. It's hard getting out when you have so much to catch up on in life and bills I owe on top of having to pay to be allowed on probation.
