

Ryan Kelly
North Waterboro
LD 1109

In 2005 the Supreme Court ruled that law enforcement does not have a constitutional duty to protect individuals. Given that and the excessive response times it takes for LE to arrive, especially in rural areas which the vast majority of the state is. We as citizens are our own best protection against those that would do us, our families, friends and neighbors harm. By restricting our use of "standard capacity" magazines you are limiting our ability to protect ourselves.