

meredith coffin
Freedom
LD 69

Let us not go backward! People are now used to bringing their own bags. It is not hard to be responsible to remember one's own bags, though it takes practice...which we now have achieved. The plastic problem is huge. I know making plastic makes a lot of money for some but it doesn't take care of our environment. Banning single use bags is a source of pride for Maine.
I do not support this bill.