

Sydney Harris
Portland
LD 69

Please oppose this bill! I strongly oppose the idea of reversing Maine's bag ban. Plastic bags are not only toxic in the environment and commonly littered wherever they are used, they are also just not necessary. There are plenty of other viable options including reusable bags, cardboard boxes, and just holding things your hands. This obsession with plastic bags is ridiculous. We've banned them already - leave it alone.