

Brian Juengst
Manchester
LD 1185

Good day,

As a father, I would not want my children to find themselves in a position to enter a life-long legal commitment like marriage at an age under 18. If they can't vote nor be drafted, then they should not be bond to another person. The current law would allow predators and manipulators to take advantage of youths.

Thank you for seeking to close this loophole and end child marriage.