

Robyn Salbo
Scarborough
LD 253

It is unconscionable to think of a world where women's reproductive rights, and basic healthcare are governed by a legislative body rather than a doctor. Reproductive healthcare is a human right. Healthcare is a human right. We live in the richest country in the world. We need to start acting like it, and taking care of EVERYONE, not just the mega-rich and the corporations. Healthcare for all. Reproductive healthcare for all.