

Tracy Mastro
Raymond
LD 253

I am against all of these anti-abortion bills. I am insulted and frustrated that in this day and age we are still fighting for equal rights and health care against archaic and misogynistic ideologies. Restricting abortion access is dangerous to women's lives and health. Women and health care providers deserve better.