

Shauna Larrabee
EAAA
LD 814

I am for the proposed legislation because as a Bank employee I see all too much that programs, like Money Minders, is needed for our aging population. I see first-hand when a spouse passes away, the widow is left not knowing how to handle the finances. Even a task like balancing a checkbook is difficult. Having the added funds will increase awareness for programs like this.