

Sydney Cromwell
Winslow
LD 253

Abortion is an important and life-saving medical treatment for certain miscarriages and nonviable pregnancies. It is also an important choice for women who do not have the resources to care for a child. Covering abortions under MaineCare is a critically important part of keeping women safe and healthy in Maine.