

Sydney Cromwell
Winslow
LD 975

Women deserve the right to make full and free health care choices with the help of their doctors, without interference from any outside sources. Maine is a pro-choice state and that makes it a state where women can feel safe and take ownership of their reproductive choices. Criminalizing abortions will only lead to loss of lives from women seeking unsafe abortive options. The best choice is to allow women to make their own decisions in safe environments.