

Tyson Hoffman
Winterport
LD 253

Removing coverage for abortion is a dangerous move. It puts women, mothers, families, and children in grave danger.

Even if the idea is to preserve life, abortions may be needed for a wide variety of reasons. Sometimes pregnancies may be life threatening to the mother, and neither the mother nor the fetus may survive.

Removing the decision by legislative mandate is dangerous and cruel.

I oppose LDS 253 strongly