

Neil Remsen
Topsham
LD 676

I feel that removal of the rails from the mountain division would hurt Maine. I am in full of support of Rail with Trail. It would allow everyone the ability to access the beautiful scenery of the mountain division and allow rail service to serve potential customers and future passenger service. Currently the Vermont Railway is expanding their operations in New Hampshire. Removing the rails would prevent them and any other rail operators from bringing in customers and jobs to the area.