

Judy Jones
Dresden
LD 1220

I believe that our pets deserve the same opportunity that humans get. With chiropractor care it would give our fur babies a more comfortable life and longer lifespan with their humans. We all know that it is becoming harder to get appointments with a vet as they are very short staffed. Some veterinary are not even accepting new clients.