

Mary McEvoy
ME Master Naturalist Program
LD 1293

Coyotes are our National Wild Dog and a Keystone Species that sits at the top of our current wildlife pyramid. Remove either the lowest tier (namely grasses and plants that herbivores eat) or the Keystone Predator at the apex, and the pyramid collapses.

I find it incredulous that we allow killing of Coyotes in this country. Shame on us! In Australia, they respect their National Wild Dog, the Dingo, and we should learn to be as humane as the Australians.