

Joy Sinclair
Brewer
LD 613

The Maine Death with Dignity act is a MUST in this country, particularly in the present time of decimating healthcare, social services, and disease research. This Act is so incredibly important to all Mainers, and we must ensure it stays legal and binding for us. We must allow for a humane exit from suffering, instead of starving, wasting, and painfully suffering until the body draws its last breath.