

Rachel Herbener
Belfast
LD 588

Please support LD 588

My jaw dropped when I read this. How can it be legal to deny agricultural workers the right to discuss working conditions? Do we have masters and serfs? Owners and slaves? That denial legalizes employer control over workers and also violates Free Speech. Shame on Maine if this bill doesn't pass.

"This bill would extend to agricultural workers the right to engage in concerted activity, such as talking to coworkers or employer about wages or working conditions without fear of retaliation."