

Lola Dwyer
Portland
LD 676

Keep the tracks. Do not tear out the Mountain Division railroad tracks. They are living history. Each time we erode a piece of history, it is lost forever. And you cannot even say that this is for the pursuit of something greater. Keep the tracks so that we may walk in the shadows of our ancestors until the tracks are reclaimed by the hand of God.