

David Smith
Portland
LD 25

I am a retired family physician, and I am very concerned about the public health implications of PFAs.

I heard you too advance LD25. This will remove a burden on our landfills, and encourage innovation and proper management to ensure that these "forever chemicals" stay out of our eco systems.